

Corporate Support

The Women's Alcohol and Drug Advisory Centre Incorporated (WADAC) is a charity that operates Jarrah House. It is endorsed by the Australian Taxation Office as a Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR). Jarrah House runs the only residential program in Australia where women can bring their children when they come detox from alcohol and other drugs. To continue the valuable work assisting women and women with children regain control of their lives Jarrah House and WADAC depend on the generosity of companies to continue our vital work.

A link with Jarrah House is a link to helping women and families throughout New South Wales.

You can demonstrate your corporate social responsibility by supporting Jarrah House / WADAC in the following ways:-

- introduce a Workplace Giving program
- establish and support a staff volunteering program
- promote Jarrah House to your clients with flyers in your mailings
- donate a percentage of your profits
- provide your goods or services free of charge
- fund a needed piece of medical equipment or furnishing
- contribute to an existing program that needs funding (Designated Gift)
- help us expand our current services by funding a new initiative
- become a Friend of Jarrah House (from $10,000)
